

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1906

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Good music at the Third Street M. E. Church tonight.

Tomorrow is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season.

Mr. John T. Parker and family will move this week from the Christian Church Parsonage in East Fourth street to a residence in Bank street.

THIS ITEM WAS WRITTEN BY THE LIGHT THAT LARRY HAS FIXED ALL RIGHT.

P. S.—It's a daisy, thanks to Colonel Charlie Roberts.

Call and let me show what a handsome Diamond Ring, Stud or Pendant I can sell you for little money. Prices are guaranteed lower than you buy for anywhere.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Prof. D. S. Clinger, Superintendent of the Maysville Public Schools, left this morning for Louisville, where he will attend the Convention of the National Association of School Superintendents, which will be in session in the Falls City today, tomorrow and Thursday. Prof. Clinger will return Thursday night.

The following services will be held at the Church of the Nativity, tomorrow, Ash Wednesday: Litany and Holy Communion at 10:45 a. m.; Evening Prayer and address at 7 p. m. During Lent there will be daily services Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 4 p. m., and Wednesdays and Fridays at 7 p. m.

Kennedy's Players, in spite of the inclement weather, opened to a full house at The Washington Theater last night, presenting the comedy drama, "Lost and Won," in a most satisfactory manner. The specialties were very clever, especially those of the children—"Little Dot" and "Baby Rossie." The company is one of the best that has visited Maysville in a long time, and we predict a big week's business. Tonight the sensational drama, "The Midnight Express," will be given with an entire change of specialties. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats now on sale at Ray's.

Wanted—Man with a shovel. This office.

NARROW ESCAPE

How a Maysville Boy Got Out of a Burning College

The escape of Mr. John Dudley Keith from the burning Military Academy at Gambier, O., Saturday morning was nothing short of miraculous.

He and a fellow student named Hayes were asleep in the same room when the fire broke out. They did not have time to get on any of their clothes. Mr. Hayes, who was nearest the door, managed to get out before the room filled with smoke.

Mr. Keith lost his bearings in the room and could not find the door. Twice he got to the window and was on the point of jumping out, but finally he dropped to his hands and knees, crawled around the room, found the door and got to the fire escape, which he descended in safety.

He then walked half a mile barefooted and with nothing on save his night clothes to the old college building, where he secured an old suit of clothes, in which he came home.

DO YOU KNOW

That poor printing is a poor advertisement for your business?

The right kind at The Ledger Printery. Work done when promised.

Mr. William Hitt delivered a crop of tobacco to the American Company Monday at 74c 'round.

The management of The Washington Theater in their efforts to secure the big attractions that are playing city time, have secured the Great Lafayette and his big company for Wednesday, March 7th. His company is larger and is said to be much better than the one that pleased so well last season. To secure it a liberal guarantee to cover a part of the enormous expense of this big attraction had to be given, and Russell, Dye and Frank trust that their efforts to give their patrons good entertainment will result in giving the Great Lafayette one of the biggest houses of the season.

It isn't what you pay—
It's what you get for what you pay—that counts in the Printing
you get from The Ledger Printery. Work done when promised.

Cartmell extracts teeth without pain.

The double track on the C. and O. between Dayton and Brent has been completed.

On March 1st the Louisville office of the New York Central Fast Freight Lines, which has been a fixture in Louisville for over forty years, will be abolished and the business of the lines will be transacted in the freight office of the Big Four Railroad.

For March, Collector Samuel J. Roberts has assigned Storekeepers Oscar Grigsby, H. G. Holiday, W. C. Slye and Frank Harting and Gauger L. M. Gaffin to the H. E. Pogue Distillery; Preston D. Wells, Storekeeper-Gauger to Poyntz Bros; and J. S. Wallingford Storekeeper-Gauger at J. H. Rogers & Co's.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Last week's social record was especially marked by the handsome entertainment given the Six-hand Euchre Club by Mrs. M. C. Russell. In patriotic recognition of Washington's Birthday the National colors formed the unique decorations, while the Stars and Stripes and a portrait of Martha Washington adorned the score cards.

The cordial hospitality of the charming hostess was gracefully supplemented by Mrs. Belle Armstrong of Flemingsburg, Mrs. J. Barbour Russell and Mrs. C. D. Russell.

After the enjoyment of an elaborate menu, during which each guest received a dainty souvenir of the delightful function, handsome prizes were awarded Mesdames Will Hall, Isaac Woodward and John Hunt.

Mrs. Frank O. Barkley entertains with a luncheon and Bridge party today.

Mrs. J. David Dye is the hostess of the Six-hand Euchre Club this afternoon.

Last evening the schoolrooms of Miss Lida D. Woods in Court street were the scene of a pleasant gathering, the occasion being a reception for the day and night classes. The decorations were very appropriate. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served. It was an evening of unalloyed pleasure to about thirty who were fortunate enough to be present.

Attractive in all its appointments was the charming tea given by Mrs. C. D. Russell and Miss Katie Hunt at the home of the former yesterday from 2 to 5 o'clock. Pink and white carnations were the effective decorations, the tea table being especially pretty with its wealth of fragrant blossoms, soft lights, scintillating glass and glittering silver.

Mrs. Edwin Matthews presided in the tea room, Mrs. S. R. Harover and Miss Eliza Lindsay at the punch bowl, and the following ladies assisted in receiving: Mesdames Milton Russell, William Davis, A. M. Danbery, Sallie Baldwin, George Parker, C. E. Martin, Miss Harriet Johnson and little Miss Eleanor Hunter.

LUCAS—BURDEN.

Mr. Jessie Lucas, aged 23, and Miss Addie M. Burden, aged 19, were married in this city last night.

GANTLEY—LARKIN.

Mr. John Gantley, Jr., aged 34, and Miss Julia Larkin, aged 28, were married at St. Patrick's Church this morning at 7 o'clock, Rev. Father P. M. Jones officiating.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents at the hands of her friends and neighbors.

Cloth of Satin.

A very pretty cotton fabric finished with a high gloss. It comes in most attractive designs and colors for shirt waists and entire suits. With ordinary care it launders perfectly and its wearing quality is incomparable. You will think 15c a yard very little to pay for so much prettiness. This is a good time to have your shirtwaists and frocks made before dressmakers get busy, or if you do your own sewing, before the pretty weather makes indoor duties irksome.

New Silks for 48c Yard.

Some attractive colors in small checks have just been added to the line of Silks we're selling for 48c yard. Busy selling quickly depletes the stock however so prompt action is suggested.

WHAT some of the Legislatures are doing this session will be undone at the next session.

ONLY about one week remains for the $1,000-a-day Legislature to give the taxpayers "hot air" instead of helpful laws.

CHICAGO has a humorist who telephones depositors to withdraw their funds, as the Bank is unsafe, and has thus started "runs" on several perfectly sound institutions. The funniest thing would happen if the Chicago police should catch this fellow.

THE "Dook of Manchester" has got a job. He's now "Lord Steward of King Edward's Household." This is about the same sort of job that Colonel Gus Simmons, the Duke of Aberdeen, used to hold on the steamer Telegraph, but the latter's title was not so heavy.

JOHANN HOCH, who edited 13 wives inside of 10 years, 6 of whom he murdered and 7 of whom he robbed and deserted, went to the gallows at Chicago with a smile on his face. He was probably thinking what a scramble there would be to get the first whack at his miserable ghost.

THE Courier-Journal makes a sensible appeal to the Legislature to adopt an equitable tax law—a law that will not compel residents of this state to pay to Kentucky taxes on property owned in other states; but it isn't sensible appeals that the Kentucky Legislature cares for. There must be politics and a few additional offices at the other end of the proposition.

touch of enterprise and well-directed effort to make the old town a hive of industry and the home of prosperity.

Along this line, it is not an exaggeration to say that Mr. JOHN DULEY, President of the Board of Trade, has done more persistent and more effective work than any single citizen; and it is not to the credit of those who have not only refused to lend physical assistance, but who have declined monetary aid to enterprises that have been, and will continue to be, of direct financial benefit to them. But for Mr. DULEY, there would have been no Tobacco Fair; and but for the first Tobacco Fair, there would have been no Weissinger Tobacco Factory in this city. But for the second Tobacco Fair, there would have been no American Tobacco Company plant in Maysville, with buildings covering 3½ acres of ground, paying city taxes on some $125,000 a year and giving employment during the "season" to nearly 250 people. Here are two important additions to the city that are traceable directly to the Tobacco Fairs, not to mention the thousands of dollars that have been spent with the business houses by the visitors for each of the past seven years.

If there is to be another Fair, some of the direct beneficiaries must contribute their proportionate share toward it, both in time and money. President DULEY and a corporal's guard of public-spirited men—to say nothing of the newspapers, which have heretofore given more than all others combined,—are tired, as a correspondent said in THE LEDGER, of "pulling chestnuts out of the fire."

The Ledger's Washington Letter

Special to Public Ledger.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23d, 1906.

Oh, love, what hours were thine and mine
In land of palm and Southern pine!

The Capital City awaits with interest the return of the Nation's bridal pair, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who are now enjoying a blissful honeymoon under the balmy Southern skies in Cuba. They are expected home in a week, and an unbroken period of receptions

The uprising in China against the Missionaries has begun. The report comes that at Nanchang yesterday an English Missionary, his wife and two children were killed, while fourteen American Methodist Missionaries escaped. The American gunboat El Cano has been ordered to the scene.

What One Sees and Hears in Capital City

and festivities are in store for them. Nick Longworth is a very popular individual in Washington. He is unassuming and appears to possess the innate tact of a born diplomat. The wonderful array of beautiful presents showered upon Alice Roosevelt Longworth is enough to turn the head of the average young woman, but the gifts and the flattering adulation have not spoiled her. A Roosevelt is not easily spoiled. The President and his excellent wife and children are very popular in every walk of life and society. They put on no fool airs, are natural and democratic, do not worry, and all wear the smile that won't come off, especially the President.

Everything is reduced to a system here. Even the White House wedding, the swellest and most elaborate function ever pulled off here, was carried out on martial and military lines; 100 portly policemen kept the 30,000 rubber-necks from approaching the street surrounding the Executive Mansion, and while the 1,500 guests were packed in the building to witness the ceremony the only thing visible in the large grounds were the policemen and a yaller dog. Among the outsiders were a thousand kodak fiends, and like canines they were snapping at everything in sight. As an elegantly dressed lady emerged from the East entrance of the Mansion after the ceremony, a young man with a kodak rushed up to her and while making ready to take a snapshot at her, she drew a good-sized camera from beneath her cloak and took a picture of the youth before he could get his machine to work, and rapidly passed on. Twenty thousand people laughed at the discomfited fellow and he hurriedly vanished. The lady had smuggled her kodak with her into the East Room, and although violating the rules she got a valuable picture of Alice and Nick just as Bishop Satterlee pronounced them husband and wife.

It is openly stated that several of the White House wedding invitations were sold, one party getting $400 for his "invite." This is the latest kind of graft and is strictly new and up-to-date.

Talking about "systems," you ought to try to visit that great building, the Government Printing Office. It is presided over by a veritable Czar, and the 4,000 employees are almost afraid to take a drink of water without getting an official permit. The G. P. O. is one of the sights of Washington. The structure is new, cost several millions, and is massive and complete in its enormous details. Guides show you through and explain the printing art to you from start to finish; 100 of the newest automatic linotype machines have just been installed at a cost of $3,000 each. (This is "going some," ain't it?)

The men and women of the office are not allowed to talk to each other while at work, and they are using the deaf and dumb language to express themselves. The Government Printing Office is now operated on the lines of a big Reformatory or Penitentiary, and there's a mighty and just howl going up from Senators, Congressmen and the public generally, and before many years roll around something is going to drop that will echo from Maine to California.

The "new woman" is very much in evidence here. Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, late Woman's Suffrage candidate for President, is the only woman lawyer who attends the regular sittings as an Attorney before the United States Supreme Court. Mrs. Lockwood is not abashed by her position, however, and the other day made quite an able argument before the Court in an important case.

Dr. Mary Walker, the most noted of the female "impersonators" of "mere man," is now ill at a Washington Hospital. She is 70 years old and dresses in a high silk hat and full man's frock coat and pants. She wears a big gray shawl and is an odd and venerable looking specimen of humanity. Susan B. Anthony, the highest of all women's rights advocates, celebrated her 86th birthday here the other day before a distinguished gathering.

Washington City appears to us as the most moral city in the United States. There is considerable drinking here and the conviviality lasts all night; but there is less crime, corruption and immorality apparent here than any other place of its size on earth. Cincinnati is a Babylon of iniquity compared with Washington.

And from a literary and educational standpoint the Capital City is like a perennial Chautauqua. Every day and night there is something going on in the way of concerts, sermons, lectures, etc. There are seven theaters here, but no Sunday performance is allowed. The saloons and barber shops are also closed tight on Sunday.

There are only 30 colored Baptist Churches in Washington.

There are 96 towns in the United States named Washington.

There are 356 fire companies named after the great man.

There are over 10,000 meat markets named in his honor.

There are 84 steamboats called after the great figure in history.

There are 5 mountains, 20 lakes, 40 springs, and 7 rivers that might not have been named had Washington never been born.

It is estimated that 4,000 children are named for him every year, and that two-thirds of them are cross-eyed and redheaded.

There are Washington halls, Washington hotels, Washington clubs, Washington societies, Washington streets and Washingtonians who sigh for a chance to save the country over again.

There is Washington pie, Washington cake, Washington sausage, Washington custard, Washington cigars and Washington what-do-you-call-'em that you stand up to the bar and drink?

Senator Depew, the wit, orator and statesman of the Empire State, seems to have gone into eclipse and retirement since the revelation concerning his connection with the great insurance scandal. He is seldom seen in his seat in the Senate and remains closely in his committee room or at his hotel. The exposition of the part played by the Senator in the "frenzied finance" matter is killing him slowly but surely. He appears completely dazed and is suffering with what medical experts term "aphasia," which is probably another word for softening of the brain. His once genial face is now sad and clouded and never more in this world will the genial and jolly after-dinner speaker "set the table in a roar" with the keen shafts of his imitable wit and his latest bon mots. The joke is now turned into the deadly and pitiless truth against the erstwhile typical American racist. The press and public demand that Chauncey step down and out—

A Senator, Chauncey Depew, Got mixed in a scandal or two: Three-fourths of his state Wants him to vacate, It's yelling to Chauncey: "skiddoo!"

One don't remain long in Washington before he finds out that Senator Blackburn of Kentucky is about the most popular Senator here, socially and personally. He is genial, warm-hearted and a true son of the Bluegrass State. He speaks feelingly of his many Maysville and Mason county friends, especially of Colonel W. W. Baldwin, whom he admires very much. Mr. Blackburn will be succeeded by Senator-elect Paynter, March 4th, 1907. Judge Paynter was three times a popular Congressman and will be heartily welcomed in Washington. The Democratic program at Frankfort is to have Governor Beckham succeed Senator McCreary two years hence. The wires are already fixed.

There are now about 350 real live red Indians in Washington. The majority of these Indians are here to oppose the proposed Statehood Bill joining the Indian Territory with Oklahoma. The Indians almost unanimously oppose making a state of the territory.

Ten large, fine looking Ponca Indians were in the Senate gallery the other day. They came to Washington to present Nick Longworth with a beautiful vest made by the squaws from the skin of a Buffalo calf which was valued at $500. It is said to be a very beautiful wedding souvenir. Captain Fred N. Webber, Chief of Detectives at the Capitol Building, had charge of the Indians to see that they were not skinned or scalped by the palefaces. Captain Webber is a true Kentuckian and still has his home in Louisville. He has 72 men under him and has complete police charge of the big building. He is on to all the crooks and thieves who visit the Capital and has had many narrow escapes from violence and assassination during his service here.

Mr. Roosevelt declares that the Presidency is a "scab office," and that he works more than eight hours per day. He sticks to his work closer than any man in Washington and keeps absolutely in touch with every branch of the Governmental service.

With the Senate, Congress and the Supreme Court in session, these are busy days under the Goddess of Liberty. The august Senate consumed three entire days this week debating the insertion of the word "added," in the proposed new Pure Food Law. The Lower House of Congress has a war of words every day. But upon the whole, the onlooker cannot doubt that the statesmen seem to be very much in earnest in their efforts to grind out honest and wise legislation.

When the Supreme Court reconvened Monday I was present, expecting to hear its opinion in the famous Caleb Powers case, but this cause has not yet been finally and fully determined by the Court. The delay is ominous and favors the Federal view of the momentous question.

GEORGE H. FRANK & CO.
MAYSVILLE'S FOREMOST CLOTHIERS

Thursday was Washington's Birthday and its formal observance took place at Alexandria, George's home town, where he was called "our fellow-townsmen." Alexandria, six miles South of Washington, is one of the most ancient, quaintest and most interesting cities in this country. It bears the appearance of an old, loyal English town, and yet to this day it has the earmarks of royalty. It has its King street, its Duke street, its Prince street and its Fairfax street. Many of the buildings are over 150 years old; its cobblestone streets were laid over 100 years ago.

Everything in Alexandria clusters around the memory of George Washington and Robert E. Lee. The quaint old Christ's Episcopal church was erected in 1767 with brick brought from England. Washington was one of the chief builders of this Church and its most prominent member. His pew is marked with a silver plate bearing his name. The pew of Robert E. Lee is also marked with his name. There were 60,000 people present at the celebration Thursday, and the old town never had seen such an outpouring of patriotic people. The parade was four miles long. It was the biggest day Alexandria ever had, and her citizens made the most of it, as there was a perfect carnival of drunkenness. Alexandria is a wide-open town, and would doubtless make the immortal George blush if he could appear and witness the modern antics of this up-to-date age. The "promoters" of the affair evidently understood their business, as the parade never started until 4 p. m.

A large congregation attended the obsequies of Mr. John Mitchell Monday at Washington.

The Virginia tonight for Pittsburgh will get 400 sacks of wheat at this point.

The Rees Lee, which sank near Memphis some time ago, is broken in two and a total wreck.

There was a shipment of 50 hogsheads of tobacco from this point to Cincinnati yesterday by river.

A coal-boating stage depends almost entirely upon heavy rains. There is but little snow on the mountains for the spring rains to melt.

Poolboats have taken about 100 barges into the Pittsburgh harbor, the towboats being unable to reach that port on account of low water.

The Cincinnati-Pittsburgh boats are back in the trade again. The Keystone State passed up Saturday night and the Virginia will be up tonight.

The announcement from Washington to the effect that Congressman Goebel had succeeded in having a bill introduced for construction of ice piers in the Cincinnati harbor was hailed with joy by rivermen.

Bituminous Operators Offer Miners Advance of 5.55 Per Cent

The coal operators of the bituminous fields have presented a proposition to the miners restoring the scale of 1903 and 1904. This will be an increase of 5.55%.

The operators also request a modification of the demands for an advance of 12 1/2% and ask that the new contract be for two or three years.

If the United Mine Workers accept the compromise proposition 150,000 coal diggers in the four competitive states, including Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, and about 100,000 Union men in the Southwestern states, will receive an advance in wages.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, was apprised of the turn of affairs in New York and he immediately flashed back the pleasant news to his personal friends in Pittsburgh.

The National Executive Board will hold a meeting early in March at Indianapolis, when the members will be formally informed of the changed attitude of the operators.

Judge Charles F. Malsbary, Republican, at Cincinnati ordered an immediate examination of the accounts of Republican County Treasurer Hynicka, and the work is being done by one Democrat and one Republican expert.

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Brushed Scales from Face Like Powder—Under Physicians Six Months But Grew Worse—Some Said Face Would Be Marked for Life—Now Without a Blemish.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS.

"As I was a sufferer with eczema I write to tell you what a great friend I found in Cuticura Remedies. In six months I had tried three doctors, but did not get any better. It was on my body and on my feet so thick that I could hardly put a pin on me without touching eczema. My face was covered, my eyebrows came out, and then it got in my eye. I then went to another doctor. He asked me what I was taking for it, and I told him Cuticura. He said that was a very good thing, but that he thought that my face would be marked for life. But Cuticura did its work and my face is now just as clear as it ever was.

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap, and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever.

"I told all my friends about my remarkable cure. I feel so thankful I want everybody far and wide to know what Cuticura can do. It is a sure cure for eczema. (signed) Mrs. Emma White, 641 Cherrier Place, Camden, N. J., April 25, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every form of Eczema, from Impetigo to Scabies, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 25c., Ointment, 50c., Resolvent, 50c. ### STOPS ANY ITCHING.

Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles. Maysville People Recommend it.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Maysville testimony to prove it.

Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots, and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend of mine also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment, and was absolutely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
